HOMESTEAD HILL CSA (established in 2014)

Homestead Hill is a Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) program of Bardenhagen Berries farm, located in the heart of Leelanau County. Signing up for a CSA membership with our farm is a wonderful way to commit your household to eating more fruits and vegetables. Just $25-$50/week brings you FRESH, LOCAL GOODNESS that we hope will leave you looking forward to the next week! Our weekly newsletter lets you know what to expect in your box and provides an opportunity to swap out 1 or more items each week (depending on share size). Learn more about our farm and CSA at bardenhagenberries.com. Vegetables, flowers, and some small fruits are grown using organic practices, while strawberries and tree fruit are grown conventionally, using minimal inputs.

Summer Vegetable Shares

This is the heart of what we do! Real food for you and your family. You'll receive all the traditional garden staples, but with a sense of style and adventure beyond what you would find in the typical grocery cart! We plant over a hundred varieties, ranging from delectable heirlooms to our "tried and true" favorites. Expect to find tomatoes and cucumbers weeks ahead of in your backyard! We carefully pick, wash, and pack your weekly share based on what is in season and ready for harvest. Small shares have 5-7 items, while regular shares have 6-9, and large shares have 7-10. Quantities of individual items often varies by size (e.g. 5 oz of salad mix for small shares vs. 8 oz for larger shares). Choose the option that fits you best!
